RECENT EVENTS

The Flying Scotsman

Tuesday 18th April

Over the Easter weekend the Flying Scotsman visited the Bluebell Railway and as Kim and Ben's farm adjoins the line they kindly allowed members to join them on the 18th April to see this iconic locomotive as it steamed past.

The weather was glorious and in addition to seeing the Flying Scotsman pass in both directions we enjoyed seeing two of the Bluebell's own trains passing by while chatting to friends and enjoying the sunshine.

Once again we are indebted to Kim and Ben for their hospitality and another enjoyable event in the society's social calendar. (Iain)

Bluebell Stroll

Sunday 7th May 2017

A small select group of members had a delightful walk through the fields and bluebell woods at Kim and Ben's farm on 7 May. The bluebells were at their peak and the sight and smell was magnificent.

The sun shone that afternoon and we were able to enjoy tea and friendly chat in the garden afterwards. It was a lovely afternoon so thank you again to Kim and Ben. (Helen)
